Description

Pair of gilded frames, late 19th - early 20th century
Pair of carved and gilded wooden frames, dating from the late 19th - early 20th century. The frames feature a refined continuous relief decoration with a stylized leaf motif, typical of late 19th-century production, combined with an internal molding featuring a geometric pattern. The gilding, likely mission or leaf gilding, retains a pleasant patina of age that enhances its authentic and decorative character. Ideal for paintings, prints, or mirrors, these frames are perfectly suited to both classical settings and eclectic interiors. Good overall condition, with normal signs of wear consistent with the period.
