Description

Ceiling light made by the Florentine manufacturer Banci in the 1970s, in Hollywood Regency style.

The Hollywood Regency style, which emerged between Italy and California in the mid-20th century, is defined by a taste for luxurious decorative staging, combining golden reflections with stylized natural motifs.

Three light points are subtly concealed among the foliage; the small E14 sockets are fitted with rings allowing the addition of lampshades.

The ceiling light will be delivered with entirely new wiring.

Condition: Very good overall condition, with light patina consistent with age.

Note: A second, nearly identical ceiling light, of the same diameter but fitted with a single central
