Description

Painting - surgical scene, modern school, oil on panel - 20th century
Interesting and expressive oil on panel depicting a surgical scene in the middle of an operative act. The composition features three concentrated practitioners, in a tense, controlled atmosphere, treated in a palette of blues and grays, emphasizing the dramatic, human character of the subject. The pictorial treatment, with visible, nervous brushstrokes, lends the whole a great intensity, evoking certain approaches to modern 20th-century painting. Work presented in its original, sober and elegant wooden frame. Dimensions: Height: 70 cm Width: 90 cm Condition: Good overall condition. Presence of light wear and soiling, visible in photos. Canvas in good structural condition. A singular work, both decorative and loaded with meaning, ideal
