

Art Nouveau Inkwell

220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 6,6 cm

Height : 6,6 cm

Description

Superb Czech Art Nouveau inkwell with water lilies and gilt brass decoration in the style of Loetz. in the style of Loetz, circa 1900. The green Bohemian glass bowl glass, topped by a magnificent lid and rim with brass with a brass leaf motif (a serial or model number under the lid). Also includes original glass insert. The inkwell is in very good condition, with no chips, hairlines or Diameter: 6.6 Height: 6.6 L'Art Art Nouveau is an artistic movement of the late 19th and early 20th centuries, dominating architecture and the decorative arts. It is characterized by the 'whiplash' lines inspired by nature. as a reaction against the excesses of over-industrialization and the sclerotic reproduction of old styles, this movement international development. artistic

Dealer

GALERIE OCARINA

Art précolombien, Archéologie, Arts premiers

Mobile : 0630229738

15 grand rue

Issigeac 24560

vocabulary, other sources of inspiration were sought. sources of inspiration. In this way, Japanese art from the 1860s onwards - especially in France - a source of inspiration Shipping costs on quotation. Careful packaging.