PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Two Romanesque Bronze Armor Appliques Circa 12th Century

200 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Two very nicely detailed armor appliques of Romanesquetimes1. Lion: with gold remains, diameter: 13 mm2. Blanche of Castile, diameter: 16 mm The castle is probably a reference toBlanche of Castile. Blanche of Castile (March 4, 1188 - November 27, 1252) wasQueen of France by marriage to Louis VIII. She was regent twice during thereign of her son Louis IX: during his minority from 1226 to 1234, and duringhis absence from 1248 to 1252.Finding place: southern France

Dealer

Wonders are Collectible

Sculptures & Works of Art

Mobile : 00 31 653179741

Utrecht 3701EV