Description

A Louis XV-style sloping desk, in satinwood in light rosewood frames underlined by boxwood fillets. Faithfully inspired by a period model, it dates from the second half of the 19th century, circa 1880-1900. Resting on a nicely curved base, it opens with a flap concealing storage and two small drawers. The lock works perfectly. Height of the open flap: 71 cm. We can offer buyers transport to mainland France for EUR140.
