Description

Vintage coffee table with abstract ceramic top, metal base - 1960s/70s
Description Original vintage coffee table from the 1960s/70s, featuring a glazed ceramic tile top decorated with a brightly colored abstract motif (orange, red and green on a brown background). The decoration, typical of modernist design from this period, evokes creations by Roger Capron, Vallauris or similar productions, with highly dynamic graphic work. The structure rests on a chrome-plated metal base with clean lines, forming an elegant contrast between the warmth of the ceramic decor and the industrial sobriety of the support. A low wooden shelf completes the ensemble, providing functionality and stability. A decorative and sought-after model, ideal for a vintage or designer interior. Dimensions Height: 43 cm Length: 124
