Description

Elegant original terracotta sculpture depicting a standing nude young woman in an attitude that is both natural and serene. With her face slightly turned, the composition exudes a beautiful softness of expression and a sensitive research of volumes. The work features the lively, spontaneous modeling characteristic of Bernard Anderson's work, with particular attention paid to the female anatomy and the overall balance of the silhouette. The material retains all the richness of terracotta, with its slight asperities and beautiful natural patina. Original signed sculpture, made in solid terracotta and to date from the late 40s - early 50s. An expressive, decorative work that can be equally at home in a classic or contemporary interior. Era: XXe century Artist: Bernard Anderson Technique: original
