Description

Charming small Murano glass chandelier with a single light, featuring an openwork structure composed of translucent glass elements forming an elegant pattern of scrolling foliage and stylised flowers. The piece is adorned with purple glass drop pendants, creating a delicate contrast and adding a refined touch of colour. A faceted crystal drop at the bottom completes the composition, beautifully catching and reflecting the light. This model stands out for its compact size and light visual presence, allowing it to fit easily into a variety of interiors: entrance hall, bedroom, corridor or small living space. Height: 38 cm Original bayonet electrical fitting, in working condition. Condition: overall very good. Please note a small missing leaf element in the upper section, discreet and not affecting the overall balance of the piece. 20th century work, in the taste of Murano productions. Gallery note A particularly charming example, capturing the essence of Venetian chandeliers in a compact and easy-to-place format. The purple drops are a real highlight, introducing a subtle and unusual tone compared to clear crystal, and becoming especially attractive when lit. This type of piece works beautifully today either on its own or as part of a layered lighting composition in more contemporary interiors.
