Description

Oil on panel - Vésubie valley landscapeSigned lower left Guy kotlar- 20th centuryCharming oil on panel depicting a landscape in southern France, featuring a perched village in the Vésubie valley (Alpes-Maritimes), as indicated by the handwritten inscription on the back.The composition features a path bordered by a low stone wall leading to a village clinging to the hill, dominated by typical Mediterranean vegetation, including handsome slender pines.The brushstroke is lively and generous, with a beautiful pictorial material to the knife, giving relief and depth to the whole. The luminous palette, blending greens, ochres and blues, aptly captures the sunny atmosphere of the Nice hinterland.Technique: oil on panelSignature: lower leftSubject: vallée de la Vésubie
