Description

Elegant crystal sculpture by Daum France, depicting maternity, a timeless theme treated here with great gentleness and beautiful artistic sensitivity. The female figure, draped in a flowing veil, delicately holds a child in her arms. The ensemble is distinguished by a clean, harmonious line, typical of Daum creations from the second half of the 20th century. The crystal features a fine finish, with a soft, flowing texture. The crystal features a slightly opalescent satin finish, enriched with fine internal inclusions that catch the light and give the piece a subtle, refined presence. The treatment of the drapery, all in movement, as well as the delicacy of the faces, testify to the expertise of the Daum house, a major reference in French crystal making since the end of the 19th century.
