Description

Still life with bouquet and female portrait, double-sided, Georges Lévy workshop Oil on canvas double-sided featuring an interior still life on one side and an Art Deco female portrait on the other, from the Georges Lévy workshop. Side 1 - Still life Elegant composition around a bouquet of pink and violet flowers in a slender vase, accompanied by a cup, a stemmed glass, a dark pitcher, books and an open book in the foreground. The scene is aptly structured: foreground (book, cup) -> middle ground (vase, pitcher) -> background (wall painting). This creates a simple but effective depth. Harmonious palette blending soft greens, warm browns and vibrant floral accents. Calm, intimate atmosphere. Side 2 - Portrait Female bust portrait in an assertive Art Deco style: slender face, wavy hairstyle typical of the 1930s, simplified, elegant lines. The treatment favors construction and presence, with a background treated in broad, flat tones of color. A particularly interesting set for its double-sided character. The still life offers a balanced, luminous composition, while the portrait develops a more graphic, stylized style. Two complementary registers on the same support, revealing a lively and spontaneous studio work. Stamped on the reverse "Atelier Georges Lévy 1893-1969" Condition: good overall condition, visible traces of use related to the double use of the support. Later frame in patinated and gilded wood. Dimensions: 68 x 60 cm with frame, 46 x 38 cm on view.
