Description

Important painted canvas depicting a lakeside landscape within a Baroque frame painted to resemble marble. The main scene shows houses around a lake surrounded by trees, with mountains on the horizon. Oil on canvas from the mid-18th century, probably originating from Italy or Provence, and which would originally have been placed above a doorway in a grand residence (townhouse, palace, castle). Restorations to the paintwork, relining. 20th-century frame painted to resemble marble. Dimensions: 126 x 166 cm
