Description

Superb Provençal Regency-style pedestal mirror, in finely carved and richly gilded wood, retaining its beautiful original patina. This pareclose model features particularly elegant and abundant ornamentation: openwork shells, unfurled acanthus leaves, asymmetrical scrolls and delicately worked floral motifs. The curved pediment and generously carved jambs bear witness to the refined decorative craftsmanship typical of the Regency taste revisited in Provence. The mirror, divided into several panels, has the charm of antique mirrors with a few marks of time reinforcing its authenticity. The whole rests on an integrated base, giving it a strong decorative presence and beautiful stability. A mirror with character, ideal for a classic decor, a charming interior or a highlight in
