Description

Rare set of 2 glasses in Baccarat crystal. Model Bouquet, created in 1971 by Robert Rigot. Bourguignon, sculptor, Grand Prix of Rome, Robert Rigot intervenes in Baccarat for sculptures, especially animal sculptures, and draws this service of glass flowers. Their slender silhouette offers reminiscences of Scandinavian design, such as tulpenglas, tulip glasses by Nils Landberg for Orrefors, made in 1954. References: "Baccarat: meeting of design" by Mireille Mazet, art historian and "Baccarat, a French manufacture", photo page 181. Height: 9.09". Diameter: 3.54" and 3.62". Capacity: 15 cl (5.07 US fl oz). Color: amber. Stamped glasses.
