Description

This Louis XIII-style oak sideboard immediately seduces with the nobility of its wood and the quality of its workmanship. It is organized into three spacious trays, perfect for displaying objects, organizing a service or structuring a space with elegance. At the front, the finely carved twisted columns add a strong decorative presence and embody the character of the Louis XIII style, both robust and refined. The warm patina of the oak highlights the wood grain and lends the ensemble a charming authenticity. Thanks to its harmonious proportions, this sideboard finds a natural place in an entrance hall, a living room, a dining room or even an office, where it can serve as an occasional piece of furniture that's as practical as it is decorative. A versatile piece full of personality, it will bring a
