Description

Portrait of a young woman - School in the taste of Jean-Gabriel Domergue - signed N. Lota - 20th century
Elegant portrait of a young woman treated in a style typically inspired by Jean-Gabriel Domergue, famous for his refined and sophisticated female figures. The work depicts a young woman with luminous eyes, wearing a delicately tied scarf, in a warm, nuanced palette blending browns, ochres and subtle greens. The brushstroke is lively and expressive, with visible material work bringing relief and modernity to the composition. The treatment of the face, both idealized and elegant, as well as the rendering of skin tones and eyes, are fully in keeping with the glamorous, Parisian aesthetic of the mid-twentieth century, in the spirit of the female portraits dear to Domergue.
