Description

Refined sideboard in finely carved solid walnut, embellished with fruitwood trim. The sideboard features a rounded structure, featuring bracket feet and a square top. The cabinet features four doors, two at the front and two at the sides, with lost-wax cast bronze keys. These doors open onto two ergonomic shelves, ideal for storing various objects. Another distinctive feature of this sideboard is the sliding undertop, with a pull rod, which allows for increased storage space or to be used as a work surface. This elegant and refined piece of furniture adds a touch of class and antique style to any space. Made in Piedmont (northern Italy), from the Louis XIV period,
