Description

Italian cloakroom/coat rack from the 1960s, made of deep-veined, warm rosewood veneer by Carlo de Carli - Italy 1960. This model features two independent modular panels, allowing different configurations according to available space and layout needs. The first panel, 64.5 cm wide, is equipped with four chrome-plated coat hooks, while the second panel features a central rectangular mirror (43 x 75 cm) framed by a metal strip shelf, a drawer and several storage niches. The aluminum inserts and chrome details underline the modernist influence characteristic of Carlo De Carli's designs. Emblematic of 1960s Italian design, ideal for an entrance hall, office or bedroom.
