Description

An elegant three-door Victorian sideboard with striking decorative appeal and soft, harmonious lines. Crafted from fruitwood, it is embellished with refined maple inlays that enhance its surface and rich gilt-bronze accents that lend light and character to the piece. At the center stands out a splendid Sèvres porcelain plaque featuring a figurative scene, a captivating element that immediately catches the eye. The slightly curved, glass-paned side doors lighten the structure and make it ideal for displaying objects or tableware. This is an elegant and striking piece of furniture, perfect for enriching classic interiors but also for creating a tasteful contrast in more contemporary settings. A sideboard with a strong presence, capable of enhancing any space with style and personality.
