850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Height : 8,5 cm

Description

Blood jasper heraldic seal, 19th century
Green hardstone seal, probably blood jasper (heliotrope), finely cut and polished, preserved in its original case.
Description
The circular die is engraved with a heraldic coat of arms composed of a parted shield:- to the dexter, a field charged with multiple chevrons,- to sinister, animal presence (probably stylized lion) and cross
The whole is stamped with a helmet in profile with developed lambrequins, surmounted by a double crest: stylized plant motif and arm or hand holding a flower.
Quality workmanship, typical of 19th-century personal or bourgeois seals, probably from Northern Europe (Belgium or France).
Very fine cabinet object, both decorative and emblematic of the heraldic tradition.
Die size 2.5 cm x 2 cm
Condition: Good overall condition,
