Description

Sorry,; no airmail export.A handsome, utilitarian fruitwood spinning wheel, beautifully turned with curves that emphasize solidity rather than elegance.It's all functional, with of course a few tightenings and adjustments to be adapted to use. The reel comb is in place. One part is split and glued (red arrow). The leather strap has become string, but patina, once waxed will be exceptional.After several generations, it finally belonged to Amélie, the grandmother of the person who sold it to me, and who asks that it becare....
