Description

Autograph letter signed by Joris-Karl Huysmans (1848-1907).Paris, December 2, 1902. Two pages, small in-16. Size: 10 x 9 cm / With magnetic exhibition frame included: 16 x 12 cm.Charming, typical small-format letter in which Huysmans evokes in turn the Musée du Luxembourg and its director Léonce Bénédite, but also the painters Paul Renouard (1845 -1924) and James Whistler (1834-1903). "Paris, December 2, 1902Chère Mademoiselle,I saw M. Bénédite yesterday. He told me again that he was delighted to have the exhibition at his home. [It would take place in July, no doubt, between that of Renouard which he is preparing and that of Whistler which would come after.He seems to want to take charge of everything and would like to see you.So go and visit him at the Musée du
