Description

A masterful work of dreamlike abstraction We are proud to present a splendid opportunity for collectors and lovers of refined art: an original painting by the Master Vito Montanari, created in 1955. Born in 1935 and having become a respected art professor, Montanari distinguished himself in the art world for his highly personal "dreamlike-abstract" technique, of which this work is a perfect synthesis. The painting, an oil on canvas titled "Internal Confusion," captures the very essence of the Master's artistic exploration. Through skillful brushstrokes and an evocative use of color, the work transports the viewer into an introspective dimension, typical of his early work in Forlì. The canvas measures 47x32 cm and is enhanced by an elegant gold-leaf paste frame (total dimensions 72x55 cm), which
