Description

A pair of paintings depicting family scenes, created using vintage lithographs and set in elegant French gilded wooden frames dating from the late 19th century. The prints, with their narrative and domestic style, feature compositions rich in detail and figures, typical of 19th-century graphic art. The frames, finely crafted with raised ornamental motifs, are embellished with gold leaf gilding that enhances their decorative character. A harmonious set with great aesthetic balance, ideal for classic interiors, studies, or decorative walls, capable of imparting warmth and refinement. In good overall condition, with slight signs of aging on the prints and frames consistent with the period.
