Description

Antique Chinese Pao Tao Art Deco rug | 110 years | Wool | 200 x 140 cm This antique Chinese Pao Tao Art Deco rug captivates with its refined geometric design and rare color harmony. The field is structured by an elegant network of octagonal and diamond shapes, enlivened by shades of tobacco brown, deep blue, sky blue, ivory and powder pink. The outer border, adorned with Chinese-inspired stylized motifs, emphasizes the whole with great character. About 110 years old, this rug bears witness to ancient craftsmanship where decorative composition is based on balance, repetition and fine contrasts. Its highly graphic aesthetic gives it a singular presence, ideal in an interior seeking an antique piece with a style as decorative as it is timeless. Woven from wool, this antique rug blends easily into a living room, study, bedroom or collection space. Its rhythmic pattern and subtle palette make it a rare piece, as elegant as it is original. With its repetitive lines and almost architectural design, this antique Pao Tao rug evokes a period when ornament was also becoming a modern language. After more than a century, it retains a surprisingly contemporary presence, between Chinese tradition and Art Deco elegance.
