Description

Antique Persian Sarouk Rug | Floral Medallion | 90 Years | Wool
This antique Sarouk rug, woven in Persia around 90 years ago, seduces with its balanced composition and refined softness of palette. Its midnight-blue central medallion stands out elegantly against a luminous ivory background, framed by shades of salmon pink, deep blue and delicate touches of soft green. The finely structured floral design reveals all the expertise of traditional Persian workshops. The precise contours, stylized plant motifs and overall harmony give this piece a timeless decorative presence. Its format makes it easy to integrate into a living room, study, bedroom or reading space. Hand-woven in wool, this antique rug possesses the charm of authentic pieces that stand the test of time with elegance. It will suit a classic
