Description

Elegant three-tier shelf in veneered wood, richly decorated with floral marquetry, characteristic of the 19th-century Napoleon III style. Each shelf is adorned with a refined decoration of finely inlaid bouquets and plant motifs, framed by contrasting fillets highlighting the quality of the workmanship. The top shelf is surrounded by a brass openwork gallery, embellished with small fleurons, adding an elegant decorative touch. The structure rests on black lacquered curved uprights, typical of the Napoleon III aesthetic, creating a harmonious contrast with the wood species and the richness of the marquetry. The whole presents a light, balanced silhouette that is both decorative and functional. Perfect as an occasional piece, sideboard or display unit, this shelf is ideally suited to a classic or refined
