Description

Charming pair of bronze (or brass) candlesticks with figurative decoration, depicting two putti holding a torch. The leafy corolla-shaped spigot rests on a sinuous stem, supported by a child figure with an elegant attitude. The circular bases are finely decorated with plant motifs in slight relief, adding an extra decorative touch to the ensemble. Beautiful antique patina with golden and lightly burnished nuances. Work probably from the late 19th or early 20th century, in the neoclassical taste. A nice old patina with golden and slightly burnished shades.
