Description

Keller et Guerin : Suite de deux plats en faïence polychrome - XIXe siècle - décor floral et corne d'abondance Charming suite de deux plats ovales en faïence à décor polychrome XIXe siècle. These two pieces feature a brightly colored hand-painted decoration of stylized floral motifs. One is adorned with an elegant floral cornucopia, while the other features a central bouquet in the naturalistic taste. The wings are outlined with a characteristic blue fillet and embellished with seedlings of small flowers. The reverse sides bear marks in underglaze blue, confirming an early factory production.

Dimensions Approximately: Large model: 42 x 32 cm Second model: 37 x 29 cm Condition Overall good condition for early pieces. Please note: small edge chip traces of use and enamel wear on old
