Description

Two Napoleon III blackened wood and brass fillet boxes - 19th century Elegant set consisting of two blackened wood boxes, decorated with brass fillets and central cartouches, typical of Napoleon III production. The large box, rectangular in shape, features sober, refined decoration with double fillet framing and a blank central cartouche. It is fitted with a brass lock entrance with ring. The small box, with its scalloped shape, offers an elegant silhouette and more discreet matching decoration. The interior of the large box is lined with silk with decorative textile framing, testifying to its function probably intended to contain jewelry or precious objects. The interior of the small box is made of natural wood. Dimensions Large box: approx. 20 x 13 cm Small box: approx. 11 x 7 cm Condition
