Description

? Art Deco table lamp revisited - Monteuse N°25 base & opaline glass ????? This unique lamp is a studio creation that elegantly blends industrial heritage and Art Deco aesthetics. It rests on an authentic Monteuse N°25 lamp base by Robert de Schuytener, carefully revisited to give it a luminous new life.???? The slender shaft, with its assertive geometric lines, features a burrwood-effect decoration framed by dark baguettes and brass accents. Its square base, structured and contrasted, reinforces its architectural allure typical of twentieth-century design.???? The ensemble is enhanced by an antique shade in molded opal glass from the Art Deco period. Its delicately sculpted decoration (relief motifs and openwork openings) diffuses a soft, enveloping light, creating a warm, refined ambience. The brass support, added by our workshop, ensures a harmonious transition between the base and the lampshade, while respecting the original spirit of the piece. This lamp embodies a dialogue between different eras: modernist industrial base, Art Deco decorative glass, and contemporary intervention. A singular piece, both functional and decorative. Perfect as an accent lamp on a console, desk or bedside table, it immediately adds character to a classic, vintage or eclectic interior. Dimensions: height 56 cm, shade diameter 22 cm, base 16 cm - balanced proportions and elegant presence. Suggested price: EUR180 (vintage LED filament bulb included).
