Description

garniture composed of two vases and a centerpiece in Lunéville earthenware, Manufacture Keller & Guérin, France, Art Deco period, circa 1920-1930. Decor typical of the period, blending geometric stylization and naturalistic inspiration, depicting birds and floral motifs in a contrasting palette of black, orange and brown, on an ivory background. Geometric border friezes, characteristic of the Art Deco taste. The shapes are sober and balanced, highlighting the modernity of the decor and the elegance of the ensemble. The pieces bear the KG Lunéville France factory stamp on the reverse, guaranteeing their authenticity. Good overall condition, note slight traces of use and a fine network of varnish crazing (classic on this type of production), with no notable cracks or
