Description

Ceramic cachepot signed Millet - sailboat decor - art work - XXth Charming ceramic cachepot signed Millet - hand decor, French art work dating from the mid-20th century, circa 1950-1970. The piece features a stylized sailboat decoration treated in a graphic and naïve spirit, enhanced with black strokes and white reserves on a shaded brown background with a turned effect. The hand-made decoration gives the piece a unique character and a beautiful decorative presence. Flared shape with simple lines highlighting the workmanship of the material and decoration. Handwritten signature under the base: "Millet décor main". Condition: Good overall condition, note traces of use on the inside (former use as a cache-pot) and some superficial wear to the decoration, with no structural
