Description

A design coffee table from the 1970s, combining transparency and visual lightness. It features an all-glass structure forming base and top, resting on an elegant system of tubular chrome-plated metal supports. A central crossbar in light wood structures the whole and provides a warm contrast with the transparency of the glass and the shine of the metal. The clean, architectural design evokes the great modernist creations of the second half of the 20th century, in the spirit of designers such as Michel Dumas or the Roche Bobois style. Thanks to its minimalist lines, this table fits perfectly into a contemporary or vintage interior.
