

Martini Rifle, English-made For The Arabian Market - Arabian Peninsula, 1904-1925

1 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Martini rifle, English manufacture for the Arab market - Arabian Peninsula, Oman, 1904-1925. Category D weapon, free purchase and possession for adults. Gun marked "Martini S K 1131 R C Muscat". I decipher three hallmarks from the Birmingham proof house, NP crowned, BV crowned and PP crowned. Used between 1904 and 1925. Functional mechanism. Arabic-style re-cut stock. Stock and buttstock locally decorated with metal inlays. Some wood damage and missing inlays. Oxidation of steels. The stock has a slight play but the whole remains solid. Weight 2728gr Length 93cm Barrel length 51cm

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120