

Suspension 'lotus Flower', Tobia Scarpa For Flos

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 42

Depth : 24

Description

This 'Lotus Flower' suspension lamp diffuses a subdued light in beams through the multiple holes that occupy its surfaces. Tobia Scarpa's idea was to create an atmosphere, to produce wonder and poetry. This is a demanding luminaire that is as magical on as it is off. Published by Artemide in 1961, it is finished in grey nickel-plated metal.

Dealer

Luce Elettrica / Olivier jacquet

Luminaire Italien

Mobile : 0685732008

63 rue Léon Frot

Paris 75011