

Dionys Van Nijmegen (1705 - 1798), Samson And Delilah

8 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

Dionys van Nijmegen Dutch painter Rotterdam 1705 - 1798 Rotterdam Samson and Delilah Oil on panel : 50.1 x 39.5 cm Signed lower right "D: Van / Nijmegen" Frame : 62.3 x 51.9 cm Provenance: sold at Van Ham Cologne, 16/11/12 for EUR10,000 (+ buyer's premium) Dionys van Nijmegen was a multiskilled 18th century Dutch painter from Rotterdam of easel paintings, miniatures and wall hangings. The story of Samson and Delilah is one of the great romantic stories from the bible. During many years Samson was able to beat off the Philistine threat.
Delilah, the woman he madly loved, betrayed the source of his phenomenal physical strength to the enemy: his hair, that should never be cut. All my paintings stand fully documented on my website: <https://www.jeanmoust.com/categories/bi>

Dealer

by Jean Moust

old master paintings

Tel : 0032475743753

Fax : /

mariastraat 15

Bruges 8000

blical-mythological-and-allegorical-scenes/nijme gen-dionys-van/samson-and-delilah-6869946