Description

Pair of oval-shaped wall medallions, in carved and gilded wood, decorated with galant scenes in the taste of the 18th century. Each composition depicts young couples in a country landscape, inspired by the world of Watteau or Fragonard: delicate attitudes, refined costumes and a pastoral atmosphere imbued with gentleness. Subtle coloring and fine drawing lend the ensemble a certain decorative charm. The richly carved frames are topped with drooping ribbon bows, typical of the Louis XVI style, and embellished with a beaded frieze. Gilding brings elegance and luminosity to the ensemble. Very decorative, these medallions will find their perfect place in a classic or eclectic interior. Era: Louis XVI style work, early 20th century Materials: Carved and gilded wood, printed scenes Dimensions: 40 x
