Description

French Empire period mahogany billiard table, resting on four sheathed legs with ringed bases, typical of the early 19th century style. The belt is richly adorned with applied bronzes: central laurel wreath, finely chased attributes and decorative motifs, bringing an elegant and classic character to the ensemble. The top is upholstered with a green carpet (worn, to be replaced), revealing a beautiful antique structure with a solid oak plank. Generous proportions make this both a playful and decorative piece, ideal for a characterful interior. Very beautiful patina of the wood, with traces of use consistent with age. Era: XIXth century, Empire period Materials: Mahogany, bronzes Dimensions: Length: 230 cm Width: 140 cm Height: 86 cm Condition: Used condition, very
