Description

Léon Reni-Mel (1893 Paris - 1984 Garches) Portrait of a man with a boater Oil on cardboard signed lower right, with a dispatch: "A mon père, Aux Armées" and dated 1915 (apocryphally) 30 x 23.5 cm 11.81 x 9.25 inches. 40.4 x 34.3 cm 15.91 x 13.50 inches with its antique frame. Originally from Brittany, trained at the Beaux-Arts, Reni-Mel was mobilized in 1915 for the Great War; at the end of it he suddenly became famous with two monumental compositions: France 1914 and America. This work, America, was donated to the American government and marks the beginning of Reni-Mel's career, who from 1923 to 1934 lived in the United States, where he met the woman who would become his wife and produced numerous landscapes and portraits.
