Description

Beautiful depiction of Mary Magdalenepenitent, probably from the European schoolEuropean school. Thesaint is depicted reclining in a rocky landscape, gazing upwardstowards heaven, in an attitude of meditation and repentance.The composition is particularly decorative: the large blueblue drapery enlivens the foreground, while the blonde hairbright face and clasped hands immediately attract thethe eye immediately. The traditional attributes - the skull,the book andthe solitude of the landscape - reinforce the subject's spiritual iconography.subject.The work presents a beautiful visual presence andan antique patina,
