Description

Beautiful depiction of Mary Magdalene penitent, probably from the European school. The saint is depicted reclining in a rocky landscape, gazing upwards towards heaven, in an attitude of meditation and repentance. The composition is particularly decorative: the large blue drapery enlivens the foreground, while the blonde hair, bright face and clasped hands immediately attract the eye. The traditional attributes - the skull, the book and the solitude of the landscape - reinforce the subject's spiritual iconography. The work presents a beautiful visual presence and an antique patina,
