Description

Oil on canvasH. 46; W. 55 cmThis elegant pair of landscapes is a refined illustration of the idealized landscape aesthetic inherited from the classical tradition and still highly prized in the early 19th century. Each scene offers a variation on the theme of the animated landscape: discreet figures, walkers or travelers, enliven winding paths, inviting the eye to penetrate the depths of the composition. Successive shots open onto valleys bathed in soft twilight, leading to rolling horizons, treated in a vaporous atmosphere. The subtly nuanced palette oscillates between the warm tones of the sunset and the deep greens of the foliage, lending the whole a poetic, contemplative dimension. The exotic touch suggested by a palm tree, associated with varied vegetation, testifies to a nascent romantic
