

Oil On Canvas "saint In Ecstasy" Late 17th/early 18th Century

1 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 38

Height : 49

Description

This high-quality painting strongly recalls the 17th-century Bolognese school, particularly the influence of masters such as Guido Reni and Sassoferrato. The rendering of the shining eyes and the slightly parted mouth are typical stylistic features of "Baroque Classicism," designed to express ecstasy. This canvas dates back to the late 17th or early 18th century. In good condition. Canvas measures 49 cm by 38 cm.
