400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 840

Width : 130

Description

Printed cotton upholstery fabric, with a standard width of 130 cm and a total length of 840 cm. Never used. The markings on the selvedge indicate a French art print, attributable to textile publisher Laurent Ybert, for Romanex de Boussac. Laurent Ybert is known for his reinterpretations of historical designs for contemporary interior decor. The Louis XVI-style pattern features knotted ribbons and floral bouquets printed in carmine red on a golden yellow background, in the spirit of the great 18th-century French decorative canvases. With a continuous width of 8.40 meters, this fabric is ideal for curtains, as well as for wall panels, cushions, bedspreads, or other decorative projects.
