Description

Beautiful barbotine earthenware plate with relief decoration depicting a trompe-l'oeil sea spider, produced by Caldas da Rainha in Portugal, vintage work from the mid-20th century, 60s-70s. Very expressive and naturalistic decoration with shells, seaweed and textured background, in a rich polychromy typical of this manufacture, in the spirit of Bordallo Pinheiro productions. Diameter 25cm, height approx. 7cm. Very good overall condition, note a small discreet enamel skip on a shell on the front as well as a small chip on an element on the back, also discreet. Approx. 1.5kg.
