Description

18k gold tie pin, horseshoe set with rubies and diamond chips - Antique work
Elegant 18-carat gold tie pin, featuring a refined horseshoe motif at the end, a traditional symbol of good luck and protection. The decoration is delicately set with calibrated rubies, framed by (pink) diamond chips, providing subtle brilliance and a harmonious contrast between the warmth of the gold and the intensity of the stones. The ensemble testifies to meticulous workmanship, typical of late 19th or early 20th-century fine jewelry. The fine, elegant stem is adorned with a slight twisted decoration at the top, emphasizing the object's precious, refined character. A jewel both discreet and charged with symbolism, this pin will appeal to lovers of antique accessories and collectors of gentleman's jewelry alike. Weight: 2 grams Height:
