Description

Large panoramic Neapolitan gouache. Vesuvius erupted on the night of May 14-15, 1855. This eruption was one of the most important of the 19th century with a lava flow 70 meters wide that flowed into a 300 meters crevasse where it formed a magnificent waterfall of fire. It may be noted that many people came to witness the event. Souvenir of the grand tour titled and dated at the bottom. Framed under glass in its ancient gilded stuccoed wood frame.
