Description

Northern Italy, 17th century painting, Bernardo Luini circle Virgin and Child surrounded by saints Oil on walnut panel, attributable to the entourage of Bernardino Luini, and produced in the XVIIe century, in the Lombard Renaissance tradition marked by Leonardo influence. This delicate composition features the Virgin and Child, surrounded by Saint Anthony of Padua, Saint Catherine of Siena and Saint John the Baptist, in a balanced arrangement imbued with gentleness. The ensemble finely reflects the aesthetic peculiar to Northern Italy in the XVIIe century: idealized faces, subtle modeling, and an atmosphere of great spiritual serenity. Realized on walnut panel, a noble and durable material, the work features an intimate format conducive to private devotion, characteristic of productions
